Tradition 10 "The Al-Anon Family Groups have no opinion on outside issues; hence our name ought never be drawn into public controversy."

This tradition emphasis the principle of detachment and keeping the focus on ourselves and our own attitudes. Minding my own business keeps me focused on my primary spiritual aim of recovery and serenity.

I ask myself:

- 1) Am I drawn into every controversy I encounter?
- 2) Am I free to form my own opinions without forcing them on others?
- 3) How can I practice showing love without opinion?

See you at a meeting. Chris

Came across this today in Hope for Today Sept 3rd

"The word anger is just one letter short of danger...That one-letter one-second choice between working my anger or working my program meant the difference between creating a cavernous gap in my relationships and creating connections based on unity and harmony."

Take what you like and leave the rest!

Big hug, Barbara
